STIPULATION OF AUTHENTICITY AND ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

On or about November 2, 2018, while the parties were working to mediate this matter, South Carolina Court Administration (SCCA) Staff Attorney Renee Lipson sent a collection of SCCA documents to The Honorable Shiva V. Hodges, who was serving as mediator. See Bates Nos. SCCA-000001–112. Magistrate Judge Hodges then shared the documents with all parties as part of mediation efforts.

The parties hereby stipulate to the authenticity of these documents and that the documents and any testimony or arguments related to the documents may be admitted as evidence at trial. In so stipulating, the parties do not waive any other aspect of the confidentiality of the mediation process as set forth in Local Rule 16.08(C). In addition, Defendants do not waive any other aspect of confidentiality of any other communications between or among officials or employees of the South Carolina Judicial Branch, including South Carolina Court Administration and county magistrates and persons under the direction and control of county magistrates.

It is further stipulated that the aforementioned documents, SCCA-000001–112, as well as this stipulation, may be filed by either party at the time of filing of dispositive motions, and at trial, if the case goes to trial.

DATED this 4th day of June, 2021.

Respectfully submitted by,

By: s/ Allen Chaney
